To the Honorable Judge Paul deFonzo:

I am writing in support of Zahid Chaudhry, the disabled veteran who has been threatened with removal from the United States despite his honorable service. I know Zahid. He is a true American and few people embrace American values as he does. He tirelessly helps others and encourages other people to join him. He fought bravely for our country and served in the National Guard, as well. He is in a wheelchair secondary to breaking his back in service to our country. Not only that, but he is married to a US citizen.

^{If}
This this deportation of this fine individual occurs, it will be a travesty of American justice. We are a country made up of immigrants, and Mr. Chaudhry has amply proven that he is not only a loyal American, but an example to others of what we should do to serve our beloved country.

Sincerely,

Natasha Hays, MD
